Appendix IV. Cases of Persecution Against American Medical Professionals in China

In china, the medical professionals who practice Falun Gong can not escape the persecution. Those who continue practicing, are laid off, are forced to attend brainwashing classes, or admitted to psychiatric hospital where have been injected with high dosages of psychotropic which have destroyed their central nervous system .

some medical professionals and scholar who practice Falun Gong outside of China are also subject to the persecution when they visited China:

Xiaoxu Ling,

One of the HIV researcher in University of Alabama in Birmingham, July, 2000, when he visited his family in China, he was placed on home arrest for one month.

Professor Lili Feng

In December 1999, Lili Feng, professor of Baylor Medical College was illegally detained for thirteen days when she visited China. She was made to do forced labor for exportation. She regained freedom as result of great international rescue effort.

Dr. Charles Lee

In January 2003, US citizen and Chinese physician Charles Lee, former Masachusett General Hospital researcher, was arrested and detained in Guang Zhou Airport upon his arrival. He was detained in Yang Zhou City, JiangSu province, and sentenced to three years in prison. He is presently being detained, tortured and brainwashed in Nanjing prison. He has been violently forced fed multiple times because he protested his illegal detention and abuse.

In November 25, 2003, American consulate in Shanghai visited Dr. Charles Lee and he learned how Charles lee was mentally tortured. They have monitor camera for surveilance in his celd and another camera was placed in the room where he is being forced to watch a brainwashing video tape everyday. He's being also forced to attend a 4-5 hours long brainwashing class. Everyday, a especial agent from public security, Shao Gong, spend individual brainwashing sessions with him for 1-3 hours and every night he is forced to watch one hour anti Falun Gong video and another hour of Chinese news broadcast propaganda and other propaganda programs against Falun Gong.