Mourning for Murdered Fellow Falun Gong Practitioners

As of June 15, 2005, 2,543 Falun Gong practitioners have been verified as having been tortured to death in China since China started to openly persecute Falun Gong on July 20, 1999. Because of the tight information blockade placed by the Chinese regime, the actual number of deaths of Falun Gong practitioners in Mainland China is not known but it is believed to be significantly higher. For the past few years, since 1999, Falun Gong practitioners outside of China have been tirelessly urging the international society to help end the persecution. This photograph was taken of a parade of Falun Gong practitioners in New York City to mourn for their fallen fellow Falun Gong practitioners.
