

14 Million Quit the CCP, Dissidents Targeted

Over 14 million Chinese people have renounced their membership in the CCP and its related organizations.

As the CCP (Chinese Communist Party) becomes more nervous about the withdrawals, it is targeting people who have publicly resigned or told others to, including a human rights lawyer and a pilot who fled to the US.

Chinese Human Rights Lawyer Violently Arrested

Gao Zhisheng, an outspoken human rights lawyer from Beijing, was violently arrested on August 15, 2006.

He has not been heard from since. His life is in grave danger.

Who is Gao Zhisheng?

- Self-taught lawyer from rural China, Named one of China's top ten lawyers in 2001
- Has taken up human rights cases to help dispossessed farmers, coal miners, underground Christians, and Falun Gong practitioners.
- Has been a leader in a growing grassroots movement in China, protesting Chinese Communist Party's human rights abuses, and calling for rule of law.
- In Dec 2005, he publicly withdrew from the CCP.

A Painful Choice: Pilot Seeks Asylum to Flee Persecution

Yuan Sheng, a veteran pilot seeking asylum.

An 18-year veteran Chinese airline pilot sought asylum in Los Angeles on August 8, 2006 fearing he would be arrested should he return to China.

The reason? He practices Falun Gong and someone who he told to quit the CCP turned him over to the police. He narrowly escaped to the US when his crew convinced the police to let him board the plane.

Knowing that people have been sentenced to four years in prison for possessing the "Nine Commentaries" and fearing torture, he chose to stay in the U.S.

Organ Harvesting from Falun Gong

“We believe that there has been and continues today to be large scale organ seizure from unwilling Falun Gong practitioners.”

This is the conclusion of a recent 45-page report by former Canadian Secretary of State (Asia-Pacific) David Kilgour and human rights lawyer David Matas.

The report details the mounting body of evidence pointing to Falun Gong practitioners in labour camps across China being killed for their organs while they are still alive. The organs are then sold for use in transplants, including for foreign patients.

“You don’t understand my suffering. Those Falun Gong practitioners were alive. It might be easier for me if they were dead, but they were alive.”

– Military surgeon’s admission to his former wife regarding cornea removal operations he performed.

“They take both kidneys, then the heart and the skin and the corneas and the liver, and your body is then thrown in the incinerator. I don’t think anyone can have any doubt that this unbelievable practice is continuing.”

– David Kilgour, former Canadian Secretary of State for Asia Pacific.

“We are talking about genocide, and Falun Gong was singled out. This is why governments must take action to press the United Nations to urge them to conduct an investigation.”

- Edward McMillan-Scott, Vice President of the European Parliament, who recently went to China to investigate human rights violations against Falun Gong. He met with two practitioners in Beijing who had been detained, one has been arrested again since the meeting.
