Introduction

The Children Under Persecution Report was compiled by Global Mission to Rescue Persecuted Falun Gong Practitioners (GMRPFP). GMRPFP is an international non-profit human rights organization, which was established in November 2002 by several constituent groups from 16 countries. The core mission of GMRPFP is “to call for conscience and courage, raise public awareness about the persecution of Falun Gong practitioners in China, to rescue those being tortured in jails, forced-labor camps, mental hospitals and detention centers, and to initiate, coordinate, and support efforts of the international community to help end the genocide<sup>1</sup> against Falun Gong practitioners and the ethocide<sup>2</sup> against all China and even the whole world as soon as possible.”

In compiling these cases of children suffering persecution, our primary sources of information for this report were sent by eyewitnesses and victims inside China. We are indebted to the Falun Dafa Information Center and Clearwisdom.net, which have made incessant efforts to release reports on the crackdown against Falun Gong. We are also grateful for the generous support of the world’s print and electronic media, as well as the efforts of U.S. and European governmental organizations, private individuals, the United Nations and other non-governmental organizations helping to expose and publicize the plight of persecuted and murdered Falun Gong practitioners in China.

The crackdown on Falun Gong over the past five years in the People’s Republic of China has led to the unjust imprisonment of thousands of innocent practitioners, has subjected them to severe forms of mental and physical abuse and caused their families and loved ones countless hours of emotional agony. Consequently, in the wake of this savagery, many children have become orphans or semi-orphans from the 1,068 and growing number of confirmed death cases of Falun Gong practitioners killed during the persecution. In addition, many children have been directly targeted and tortured to death or thrown into prisons and labor camps. Moreover, hundreds of thousands of children have been forced to slander Falun Gong or expelled from school if they refused to do so. These children are all targeted because of their belief in Falun Gong. Also, numerous children are victimized by being left unattended when their parents’ are detained for practicing Falun Gong.

In fact, in the past 5 years, millions of Falun Gong practitioners have been locked up in brainwashing centers, “transformed,” tortured and beaten, in order to force them to give up their belief in “Truth, Compassion and Tolerance.” They have been forced to choose between a spiritual death and a physical death. All people of China have been pushed to relinquish their consciences to show their attitudes of support for this persecution. Even foreign governments and corporations have been cheated by the government-controlled propaganda and forced to choose between conscience and interests when facing the persecution.

Falun Gong Persecution Report

We use the word “Ethoscide<sup>2</sup>” to describe one important aspect of the nature of this persecution. In this process, the children are the most victimized because their consciences and pure hearts have been damaged or warped by the brainwashing, and that will affect their long-term lives.

Due to the tight information blockage, what is reported here only represents the tip of an iceberg. The purpose of this report is to collect all the information that we can to reflect what has been happening to hundreds of thousands of innocent children in China. We hope, however, that this limited report will help to demonstrate the severe physical and mental pain suffered by countless children in China due to the cruel persecution of their own belief or their parents’ belief in Falun Gong. We hope this report can help encourage the actual rescue effort to help these children and also provide testimony for the hand of justice in the near future.

For those whose liberty has been taken away, for those whose prison walls conceal their tears ... They are oppressed. Their young and weak voices are silenced, but ours are not.

Annotation:

<sup>1</sup>genocide: the conventional definition is as follows: any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group, as such:

- (a) Killing members of the group;
- (b) Causing serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group;
- (c) Deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part;
- (d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group;
- (e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group.

For more information regarding genocide, please refer to Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Genocide

<sup>2</sup>ethoscide: We define as follows The intentional massive annihilation of the fundamental factors and values that constitute humanity. The breaking or destruction of spirit, will, dignity, or essential character. The forcible compromise of conscience or relinquishing of principles of justice. The basic methods utilized to commit this crime are massive “transformation” or “brainwashing,” followed by massive torturing and killing when encountering non-cooperation from those being persecuted.

We think genocide and ethoscide can describe the hideous nature of the persecution against Falun Gong. The campaign to annihilate Falun Gong practitioners permeates all levels of society and utilizes the entire government—what human rights lawyers are calling genocide. In addition, ethoscide is used more and more to describe another important aspect of the persecution: destroy practitioners’ spirits and corrupt all people’s consciences. Practitioners are forced to choose between a spiritual and physical death by either renouncing their belief or dying from torture. Not only China, but even foreign companies and governments have been forced to choose between conscience and self-interest when facing the persecution of Falun Gong. The way we look at it, on the level of conscience and spirit, this kind of choice is as serious as a choice of life and death. From this aspect, we say the broadness and evilness of this persecution is unprecedented in human history.

Chapter One

Cases of Children Persecuted to Death

1) Chen Ying, a 17-year-old high school student from Heilongjiang province, jumped to her death

Chen Ying, female, 17 years old, was in the 10th grade at Shuren High School in Jiamusi City, Heilongjiang Province. On August 16, 1999, Chen Ying was on a train with local officials and policemen who were taking from Beijing her back to her home. She had gone to Beijing to appeal for Falun Dafa. Along the way, policemen threatened, insulted and beat Chen Ying. They handcuffed her to a luggage rack and only gave her half a piece of bread and half a bottle of water. They did not even allow her to close the door when she went to the washroom. As Chen Ying could not bear to take more abuse from them, she closed the door of the washroom and jumped out of the train at 2:34 p.m., at a location 280 kilometers along the Jing-Qin Line. The train stopped after traveling another 20 kilometers. Commissar Li and the head of the No.2 Train Service Team sent Chen Ying to the Fengrun Hospital. At 6:00 p.m., as Chen Ying remained unconscious, Commissar Li said, "take her off oxygen," then he hurried Chen Ying's body to the Fengrun Crematorium that same night to put her into a storage freezer.

2) Liu Qian, a 12-year-old girl, was persecuted and died

Liu Qian was a 3rd grade student at Gegezhuang Village's Primary School in Xiong County, Hebei Province. In November 15, 2003, Liu Qian was diagnosed with leukemia, and her parents were told that she could die at any moment.

At the sight of Liu Qian's sadness at her diagnosis, her parents decided to teach Liu Qian Falun Gong. Three days later, Liu Qian miraculously regained her appetite and wanted to get up to do the Falun Gong exercises. She recovered completely after only seven days. Liu Qian's parents took her to a hospital for an examination, which showed no sign of illness. For a full two months after Liu Qian's recovery, there was no recurrence of the illness.

Liu Qian returned to school on February 6. After learning that Liu Qian had been practicing Falun Gong, the teacher immediately sent her to the principal's office where the principal scolded her. He would not allow Liu Qian to attend school unless she gave up the practice. No matter how hard Liu Qian tried to explain that Falun Dafa had cured her illness, none of the teachers believed what she said and claimed that it was a misdiagnosis. The principal told Liu Qian's mother who was called in that afternoon to write a pledge letter, to guarantee that Liu Qian would stop practicing Falun Gong. The mother refused. Soon after Liu Qian's mother left, Yang Tianxiang, Longwan Township's School principal and Xu Xiaohai, the principal from Gegezhuang Village's Primary School deprived Liu Qian of her right to attend school and sent her home.

From that day on, Liu Qian was deeply depressed. Whenever someone mentioned the word "teacher" in front of her, she would become frightened, angry and faint. Liu Qian's health continued to deteriorate after that. On February 11 she suddenly lost consciousness, lapsed into a coma and died.

3) Gao Jingyu, an 8-year old girl, died after mistreatment in Beijing

On March 5, 2000, Gao Jingyu, was diagnosed with leukemia. After being hospitalized several times, her situation continually became worse. Jingyu's 59-year-old grandfather Mr. Gao decided to teach Jingyu Falun Gong, in the hope that Falun Gong would help little Jingyu to regain health, just as Falun Gong had helped him tremendously, both physically and mentally since he started practicing Falun Gong in June 1999. From that day on, Mr. Gao started teaching Jingyu the Falun Gong exercises. Miracles happened shortly after: Jingyu, who had been so weak and unable to stand, started to recover and even to walk. Soon, she could even ride a bike for a fair distance. The whole family was very happy to see the changes in the little girl.

Following her recovery, her grandmother, father, and mother started practicing Falun Gong, one after another. On July 20, 2000, the town police officers arrested Mr. Gao and other practitioners including little Jingyu in the village at their exercise site. They even forced Jingyu to watch her father being abused and tortured. This little girl then was detained in a cell in the police station with all the other adult practitioners. She weakly lay down on the concrete slab, anxious, scared and confused. After being kept in the cell for over six hours, Jingyu was released and taken back home by her mother.

In the morning of July 24, police officers came and again arrested Mr. Gao and other practitioners, including Jingyu. Jingyu was released an hour later. Unable to practice Falun Gong, Jingyu's situation quickly became worse. She vomited and also spit up blood. Jingyu passed away on August 18th, 2000.

4) Meng Hao, an 8-month-old baby, was tortured to death along with mother Wang Lixuan

Eight-month-old baby Meng Hao died in police custody when his 27-year-old mother Ms. Wang Lixuan was killed.

Ms. Wang Lixuan was a Falun Dafa practitioner from Nangou Village, Qixiasikou Town, Yantai City, Shandong Province. Since July 20, 1999, Wang Lixuan had gone to Beijing eight times to appeal for Falun Gong. On October 21, 2000 she was arrested on her way to Beijing. She later ran away from the detention center, but was arrested again on October 22. Wang Lixuan and her son died at the Tuanhe Forced Labor Dispatch Division in Beijing on November 7, 2000. According to the coroner's exam, Wang Lixuan's neck and knucklebones were broken, her skull was caved in and there was a needle stuck in her lower back. Two deep bruises were found on Meng Hao's ankles, and two black and blue spots on his head as well as blood in his nose. It was deduced that the bruises may have been caused when little Meng Hao was handcuffed on his ankles and hung upside down.

5) Wang Shujie, a 4-year-old girl from Shandong Province, died as a result of the persecution

Four-year-old Wang Shujie lived in Nanmiaoshan No.3 Village, Miaoshan Town, Laiwu City, Shandong Province. On July 15, 2002, young Shujie died after being forced to live under trepidation and persecution for two years.

On July 19, 2000, when Shujie's mother was feeding Shujie, a group of police officers broke into their home and abducted all adults in the house in front of Shujie. On December 3, 2000, the police took Shujie's father and Shujie to the Guansi Police Station for interrogation. Before her father even opened his mouth, the officer yelled at him and used a book to slap his face. Shujie immediately passed out from great shock and fear. After she came to herself, she had a fever and was sweating. She swayed her head from side to side from severe pain in her head. She was restless and uneasy and banged her head against the wall. After she returned home, she was in a lethargic state for a whole night and a whole morning. The police went to Shujie's home over and over again, to arrest her family members. Pass out

Shujie's health was greatly damaged from repeated great mental shock and from living in fear for a long time. She was also otherwise devastated and had difficulty eating. Shujie was very thin and looked just like skin and bones. She was 85 centimeters tall two years ago and had not grown any taller. She could not eat much and didn't sleep well. In July 2002, Shujie died. Because her parents could not raise the money to cover her medical bills, they were forced to leave all of their belongings with the hospital before they went back to their desolate home.

Cases of Orphans and Semi-Orphans Whose Parent(s) Persecuted to Death

1) Rongrong, a 4-year-old girl, has experienced several separations from her parents

Zou Farong (Rongrong) was born on Nov. 15, 1999. Though she is only four years old, she has no mother or father around to care for her.

Both Rongrong's father Zou Songtao and mother Zhang Yunhe were Falun Gong practitioners. Because Zou Songtao did not renounce his belief in Falun Gong, he was arrested many times before finally sentenced to forced labor in Wangcun Village Forced Labor Camp in Zibo City, Shandong Province. Zou was eventually tortured to death on November 3, 2000. Rongrong was only 11 months old then. Rongrong's mother, Zhang Yunhe, was an accountant at TFL China Limited in Qingdao City. Because she practices Falun Gong, the company suspended her from her job. In May 2001, Zhang Yunhe was discovered to have handed out Falun Gong truth-clarification materials. To avoid arrest, she went into exile. There has been no news of her for a long time.

As a result, Rongrong had to live with her grandparents since she was two and-a-half years old. Rongrong's grandma could not withstand the grief of separation from her daughter and losing her son-in-law. She passed away in August 2001. Father, mother and grandmother, the three dearest ones to Rongrong, had left her in succession.

The police also forced the hospital to announce "Liu died from disease," although a staff member of the hospital accidentally disclosed information that the dead body that had arrived from the labor camp had obviously been subjected to a death by beating.

60) Orphaned teen became a fugitive as parents died from torture

Liu Xiaotian was born in December of 1985. His family lived in Yongzhou City, Hunan Province, China. His father was Liu Qing, an official of the Zhishan Town Government in Yongzhou City. His mother was Yang Yuyan, who used to be employed by the Shanghe Town Textile Factory of Lengshuitan District. They began to practice Falun Gong and follow its principles "Truth-Compassion-Forbearance" since the beginning of 1999.

Liu Xiaotian was boarding in the middle school and only came back home once a week when the persecution of Falun Gong started in July, 1999. He saw his parents practicing Falun Gong, but he didn't really know much about it.

On November 23, 2001, a Friday, Liu Xiaotian was in the classroom. Police came to his school and told his teacher that his parents were detained. They asked for him. A classmate overheard it and ran to tell him that his parents were in trouble and the police wanted him. Hearing that, Liu Xiaotian quivered with fear. He ran out of the school without taking anything. He hid in the storage room of his neighbor for the night. Around midnight, he snuck across the road to check out his home. He saw that the windows of his home were smashed, and so was the furniture inside. His neighbor saw him and asked him to stay at his place. However, two or three days later, the police went to the neighbor's place, telling them that if they saw Liu Xiaotian and didn't report to the police, they would be punished. The neighbor had no way out but to give him some money and sent him to his only relative, an uncle who is a farmer in Fujian Province.

After a long and hard journey, he finally reached his uncle's place. His legs were injured and he had a big scar on the neck. Five or six months later, one day in May of 2002, the local police came to his uncle's home. Liu Xiaotian immediately hid. He didn't know what the police said to his uncle, but after the police left, his uncle became very quiet. During that night, his uncle asked a friend to send him to Shenzhen, a city that is close to Hong Kong. He hid in a huge warehouse filled with piles of sacks. He dared not speak to anyone and thus spent a year in fear, anxiety, and suffered from depression.

In June of 2003, his uncle, who did not have an easy life, borrowed a lot of money to pay smugglers to get Liu outside China. On July 1, 2003, Liu Xiaotian arrived in Denmark. Regrettably, several hours later, the smuggler took him to the Copenhagen railway station and left. Having experienced so many threats and deceptions, Liu Xiaotian became very fearful. He quivered at the sight of the police. An old Chinese lady took him to a refugee camp. Deeply frightened, he couldn't speak properly, nor could he fill out forms. He was mostly afraid of being sent back to China and put in the hands of the Chinese police.

With the help of the staff in the refugee camp, Liu Xiaotian got into contact with Denmark Falun Gong practitioners and stayed with them till today.

While he was recovering, Liu Xiaotian started to think about his parents. He missed them very much. Later his uncle, who still lives in China, told him for the first time that his parents had died in April 2002 from torture, five months after they were detained. No one knows exactly what happened, or where they died. He also told Liu Xiaotian that in May of 2002 the local police visited him, and informed him of the death of Liu Xiaotian's parents. They refused to tell him any details. He dared not ask anything, either, after he heard the police say the word "suicide." The police also demanded that he report Liu Xiaotian's whereabouts and threatened that their entire family would be punished, should they go against this directive. His uncle was deeply frightened. Therefore, he sent Liu Xiaotian that very night to the warehouse in Shenzhen and later sent him abroad by borrowing a huge amount of money, a debt that he could not pay off until now.

The female practitioner refused to answer to the interrogation and was slapped left and right. The police station director and the Party secretary joined the room and participated in the brutality. The police kicked her many times on her hands, legs and chin with leather boots. Finally a policeman shocked her left hand and her neck with an electric baton. She lost control of the bladder and wet her pants with urine and blood (she was on her period). Finally the police sent her to a detention center.

8) A 15-year old minor was tortured and her family heavily fined

Name unknown, female, 15 years old middle school student. She unfurled a Falun Gong banner in Tiananmen Square on September 6, 2001. The policemen arrested her and threatened her. The policemen blindfolded her, cuffed her hands behind her back and stepped on her neck. The policemen then tied her up and shocked her with an electric baton on her sensitive parts. When the baton ran out of battery, the cops recharged and shocked her again until it ran out again; this went on for 3 or 4 cycles. They increased the batons to 2 and continued the shocking. A policeman later trampled on her throat and nearly killing her.

The policemen extorted 3,100 Yuan from her parents (her parents make about 2,800 Yuan a year). The jail wouldn't take her in because her body was severely injured; they were afraid that she might die in the jail.

9) Two 17-year-old high school students were forced to leave school and home for refusing to slander Falun Gong

Two name unknown, female, 17 years old high school students. In June, 2001, the girls were going to take the general exam. Before the exam, the teacher and the school administrator talked to this student and another young Falun Gong practitioner of same age and told them that there would almost certainly be questions about Falun Gong. They asked those two students to answer those questions according to the official propaganda. Both of them refused to do so and told the teachers and administrators about their personal beneficial experience of practicing Falun Gong. On the day of the exam, there was a question asking the student to talk about their own thoughts about Falun Gong based on the media coverage of "Tiananmen Self-Immolation" incident. The two students answered the questions with their honest thoughts. But their honest answer enraged the county's education committee. The communist party chief Yao of the county education committee talked to the students twice and was very angry for their honest answer. Later the authority issued orders to send those two students to the forced labor camp. To avoid the persecution in labor camp, the two students were forced to leave home and school and become homeless. However, the parents of the students are also Falun Gong practitioners. The head of the parents' working unit (a farm) Dong Xiquan and Wang Jiubin tried to force the parents to hand over the students. Wang beat one of the mothers and Dong had beaten one of the fathers. The police also threatened the parents to detain them if they refused to hand over the children. The parents were then also forced to leave home and become homeless since September 3, 2001.

10) Enduring all kinds of brutal tortures, I still didn't write a single word against Falun Gong

I am a 16-year-old middle school student. Falun Dafa taught me the true meaning of life. After July 22nd, 1999, I used various ways to clarify the truth about Falun Gong to many people. In October 2000 I went to Beijing to appeal for Falun Gong, and I was arrested and detained in No. 2 Detention Center. Because I refused to write "guarantee letter," "repentance letter" or other statements through my detention, I was illegally detained for almost 10 months. During my illegal detention, I went on a hunger strike four times to protest the persecution of Dafa and Dafa practitioners and verify that Teacher is innocent and Dafa practitioners are innocent. Thus I was force-fed through the nose. Because I kept practicing the exercises and sent forth righteous thoughts, the cruel police shocked me with electric batons on my head, face, mouth, neck, chest, the inside of both arms, armpits, thighs and back. One time the Chief of the City Police Department personally came to force me to give up my belief. He said, "If you say, 'I won't practice any more,' I'll release you right now." I said only one sentence to him, "I'll practice Falun Dafa through to the end!"

As a Dafa practitioner, my heart is filled with "Truthfulness, Compassion, and Tolerance." I do not have any enemies nor do I have any hatred. I am willing to give all that I have to awaken people who have been deluded by the monstrous lies and propaganda fabricated by the media, to awake their righteous thoughts about Dafa.

11) 15-year-old Han Tianzi suffered electric baton shock in Shenyang City Longshan Labor Camp

A 15-year-old girl named Han Tianzi was brought into Shenyang City Longshan Labor Camp. The police took the girl to the office and asked her to write a pledge. Tianzi refused, and the police then threatened her with electric batons. They also forced her to squat down in the office and said that she would be sent to reform school, where juvenile delinquents are detained. Tianzi was not scared, and she said, "Falun Dafa is the righteous Fa. Restore my Master's reputation. Release all the detained Dafa practitioners unconditionally, as they have not committed any crimes and only try to be good people." At that time another Falun Gong practitioner was being interrogated in the same office. He thought that this girl cultivated very well, coming to Beijing to validate Dafa by herself. In subsequent repeated interrogations, the girl remained resolute. When the police found that threats were useless, they started to use electric batons to shock her.

The Falun Gong practitioners in other cells could hear the child's cries of pain as well as a policeman yelling, "Will you write the pledge or not?! Write a pledge, and you can go home!" The child said, "I am protected by laws that safeguard minors, you are not allowed to beat me." But the policeman had already lost his sense of humanity and continued to shock the girl for 3 to 4 hours until his shift ended. The policeman told the girl that he would shock her again when he came to work the next day. The whole body of the girl was covered with the wounds caused by the shocks. When other Falun Gong practitioners saw her wounds, many of them cried.

A young girl, whose name was unknown, was illegally arrested and detained in Pinggu County Police Subdivision on November 8, 2001 for appealing in Beijing. She went on hunger strike for at least 4 days while requesting an unconditional release. Because she refused to disclose her identity to prevent her family from being involved in this illegal persecution, she suffered from interrogation and cruel punishments. ### 13) Li Mingwei, a middle school student, was persecuted for his belief in Falun Gong

Li Mingwei, a student in Anqiu City Experimental Middle School, Shandong Province, was persecuted by Jiang Dongbo, head of the politics education section of the school, under instructions of Principal Xia Fangjing and Deputy Principal Sun Xifu.

In July 2001, Li Mingwei went to Beijing to legally appeal but was forcefully sent back and detained for the whole summer break. He was not released until he started a one-day hunger strike. Jiang Dongbo repeatedly physically abused Li, deprived Li's right to attend class, tricked and even bribed Li to force him to write a so-called "guarantee statement" to give up practicing Falun Gong. During a politics exam, Li answered a question designed to smear Dafa with a truthful answer. The school authority treated it as a political incident and threatened to revoke his membership from the Youth League. Once Li left for home in the evening from his school dormitory. Jiang went to Li's home at mid-night to ensure he was at home. On the next day, Li was called to the office, verbally attacked by a group of teachers and had to miss 3 classes. Jiang slapped Li on the face more than a dozen times, and Li felt the pain for a long time afterwards.

One early morning when Li was still in bed, seven or eight people broke into his home and took him and his mother to the city's family planning office, leaving his 12-year-old sister home alone and helpless (his father had escaped long ago and was not caught).

After a 5-day hunger strike in the family planning office, Li was brought back to his school for extended detention. Li continued his hunger strike. The City Education Committee head Wei ordered to drag him to the People's Hospital to undergo force-feeding. The hospital staff injected him with an unknown drug, which made Li numb all over his body for a long time even after the forced-feeding. As the tube was too thick to be inserted through his nostrils, they used a hard object to pry open his mouth causing severe bleeding of his mouth. The school then locked up Li in a small room and disallowed him to attend classes unless he promised never to go to Beijing to appeal. Teachers and students were assigned to watch him around the clock. The school kept sending someone to brainwash him with crooked theories and cruelly tortured him mentally.

As of November 2001, Li Mingwei was forced to wander out of his home for more than 6 months.

Liu Wenwen and Liu Lulu were two 16-year-old twin sisters living in Yanji City, Jilin Province. In April 2001, they were detained at Heizuizi Women Labor Camp in Changchun, Jilin Province for going to Beijing to appeal for Falun Gong. ### 15) A young student can not attend school because of the persecution

Both Li Feng's parents are Falun Gong practitioners. On December 29, 1999, Li Feng's mother was detained to 45 days' detention. Li Feng's father was also jailed for 45 days. He was left home alone during those days.

When Li Feng was at the class in school, a local policeman summoned him to the principal's office and attempted to "transform" him. He told them firmly that he would continue to practice Falun Dafa. After school was over that afternoon, they came to Li Feng's home to question him again. Seeing that he was determined not to write anything, they said, "You must think about this seriously: practice (Falun Gong) or go to school. If you want to go to school, you must write the statement tonight and turn it in to school tomorrow. Otherwise, you will not be allowed to go to school any more." On June 29, 2000, police came to Li Feng's home again and carried Li Feng's Dad forcefully out to a waiting police car. Li Feng and his mother had to leave home to avoid further persecution. Li Feng and his mother are still wandering about since they left home.

16) A 15-year-old's story of her release after a five-day hunger strike

Name unknown, female, 15 years old. On Nov. 8, 2001, she was arrested at Tiananmen Square for her appeal of Falun Gong, and was sent to a brainwashing class in the Pinggu County Law Enforcement Education School. Wang Wei, the man in charge of the brainwashing ordered her to stand for a long time. Still weak from her hunger strike, she started to breath heavily and could not straighten my back. When she coughed, she bent over almost to the ground. Then Wong Hongjing, head of the Pinggu County "610" Office and others began the brainwashing session. In the evenings she was forced to watch slanderous videos about Falun Dafa.

On the 12th, a secret agent named Wu Xianquan was trying to brainwash her and in the morning the head of the "610" Office, Wong Hongjing and the Deputy Principal of the Law Enforcement Education School came to ask for her name and address. She adamantly refused to tell them. Finally, she was released under the rescuing pressure all around the world.

17) Junjun, a ten-year-old from Zhoukou city, Henan province is kidnapped by the public security department

Junjun, female, 10 years old, is from Zhoukou City, Henan Province. In August 2001, Junjun and two other fellow practitioners were arrested at a Falun Dafa material site, and nobody knows their whereabouts.

Junjun comes from a family of Falun Gong practitioners. Unfortunately, her family members have been unjustly persecuted for practicing Falun Gong. Her father is a retired doctor from an army hospital who was unjustly sentenced to a labor camp simply. Her mother was once wanted and then illegally detained by the police. Her sister, a college student in Beijing, was detained for going to Beijing to validate Falun Dafa. As a result, Junjun had to live on her own. Yet, the police still went to her school to harass her, therefore, she had no choice but to suspend her schooling. But, the police did not stop harassing her. Nevertheless, she frequently distributed Falun Gong materials with fellow practitioners.

There is evidence which revealed that the people who took part in kidnapping Junjun drove a white car. The license plate of the car is Yu (another name for Henan Province) 033730, the car belongs to the public security department.

18) Ten-year-old Falun Gong practitioner Zhouzhou was arrested, hung by his hands and beaten

In October 2000, ten-year-old Zhouzhou was arrested by the police along with over ten other Falun Gong practitioners. Police interrogated him for his parents' whereabouts and hung him up by his hands and beat him, while yelling that they would kill him by splitting him in two. His trousers were torn, but he did not yield.

Zhouzhou's parents were forced to leave home with their ten-year-old son. They were on the police's wanted list for practicing Falun Gong. The police offer a reward of 60,000 Yuan RMB (US $7,200) [approximately ten-year's income of an average urban worker] for information leading to their whereabouts.

Around Spring Festival (January 24, 2001), Zhouzhou's mother was arrested again. His mother walked out of the detention center 5 days later.

In the early morning of July 13, 2001, police broke into the place where Zhouzhou and his parents were living and took them all away. However, Zhouzhou walked out of the detention center. His parents are still being illegally detained.

19) A nine-month-old baby's bitter experiences in Changzhou city, Jiangsu province

Wu Rong, the nine-month-old infant son of Wu Dianhui and Zhang Wuying, had been the victim of the persecution since he was still in his mother's womb, simply because his parents practiced Falun Gong.

Before Rong's birth, his parents were forced to give up their teaching positions because of their appeals for Falun Gong. His father was forced to clean restrooms and do logging work. His expectant mother was forced to do copying work in polluted surroundings with toxic fumes. The police authorities from Cuizhu Station often detained the pregnant woman and forced her to stand throughout the entire night.

In April 2000, Rong's mother was beaten up by policemen when the couple went to Beijing to appeal for Falun Gong. She was four month pregnant at the time. The couple was sent to a mental hospital while the expectant mother was tied onto a bed, injected her with unknown substances and force-feed her other drugs.

In August 2000, his mother stayed in a hospital to deliver the newborn baby. Her work unit sent people to watch her during and after her hospital stay.

To prevent the couple from going to Beijing again, the police and personnel from his parents' work unit intercepted them twice when the couple traveled by train. During one of the raids, Rong's head and legs were caught and squeezed in the police vehicle's door. Both the little boy's and his mother's clothes were torn up by the police. Because of the frightening experiences, Rong started to have diarrhea and cried throughout the night.

In May of 2001, police from Changzhou kidnapped Rong's father and illegally sentenced him to two years of labor camp. The school's security guard, Li Honggen, kept Rong and his mother under 24-hour surveillance. The police also threatened his mother, saying that once Rong turns one-year-old, they will send her to a labor camp.

20) An outstanding high school student from Changchun city was deprived his right to education due to his belief

Yin Xiaotian was fifteen years old and was forbidden to attend school since 2002. He started cultivating Falun Dafa on October 1997. Ever since July 20, 1999, when Falun Gong was banned by the government, the Anmin elementary school deprived his right to participate in any activities for honor students because he had gone to Beijing twice with his parents to appeal for Falun Gong. He was punished with open criticism in front of the entire school [Note: a system left over from the cultural revolution whereby people are criticized publicly or in front of their colleagues and peers to pressure and intimidate them and others into following the government ideology.] They also wrote on his transcript record: "Went to appeal in Beijing twice and will not give up Falun Dafa even after much coaching. As such, it has caused a lot of damage to the school..."

In the summer of 2001, he was accepted to the Chaoyang No.1 Middle School in the Chaoyang District, Changchun City, due to outstanding scores. When the principal from the No.1 Middle School received his record from Anmin elementary school, he found out that Yin is a Falun Gong practitioner. Therefore, he tried to force Yin to write a letter of guarantee not to practice Falun Gong, and made it clear to Yin that he would not be allowed to attend Chaoyang No.1 Middle School unless wrote the letter of guarantee. Yin refused their request.

In the end, he was sent to the No. 69 Middle School, the lowest ranking middle school in Changchun. On his first day of class, the principal Chang Jun asked Yin's opinion regarding Falun Gong. Yin clarified the truth about Falun Gong. Chang said, "You cannot come to class unless you write the letter of guarantee not to practice Falun Gong." Yin said, "It's not because I have bad grades and it's not because I have bad discipline problems; on the contrary, people generally acknowledge me as a well-mannered, outstanding student. You do not have a reason to disallow me to attend the school. According to the law, people are entitled to have nine years of public education. If you stop me from attending school and strip me of my right to pursue knowledge, you are breaking the 'Education Act.'"

He went to school on his own on the third and the fourth day, and clarified the truth to them as usual. Principal Chang said, "There's nothing I can do. The head of the Education Bureau said to me that nothing would happen if you don't come to school, but we must brainwash you if you do come to school. If you want to attend school, you must write the letter of guarantee; otherwise, you cannot come to school or classes."

Just because he wants to be a good person based on the principle of "truth, compassion, and forbearance," and want to be a good student, the Jiang regime deprived his right to attend school and to be educated.

Ever since July 20, 1999, Yin Xiaotian has not had any peace in daily life. His father Yin Xueqing was illegally detained in Changchun's Chaoyanggou Labor Camp for a year because he went to appeal for the right to practice Falun Gong. His Mom, Chen Yanmei, was illegally detained in Changchun's Heizuizi Labor Camp 1 year and then her term was extended for more than half a year without reason. During that year, Yin didn't have anybody to take care of him and had to live under another's roof.

His father was released in 2000 and he was able to live with him. In the winter of 2000, his mother was released. His family was finally able to live together again. But the peace did not last for too long. Because his father made a solemn declaration on the Internet in March [taking back any 'guarantees' he had signed], he was illegally sentenced 2 years labor camp. Currently, he is illegally detained in Changchun Chaoyanggou Labor Camp. His mother is also on the wanted list. She is currently living a difficult life, moving from place to place, to avoid further arresting. Yin Xiaotian once again became a child without a caretaker.

21) A 16-year-old girl in Qidong county, Hunan province was illegally detained for her belief in Falun Gong

By Jan. 26, 2002, a sixteen-year-old girl has been illegally detained for more than six months by the Qidong County Police Department in Hunan Province. Liu Haiying lives in Baidishi Town of Qidong County. All of her five family members are Falun Gong practitioners. Four years ago, when her little brother was nine years old, he was diagnosed with leukemia. After he started practicing Falun Gong, he was completely cured, though he had been "sentenced to death" by doctors. All her family members then became Falun Gong practitioners.

In order to safeguard Falun Dafa, her parents went to Beijing to appeal. She and her parents also clarified the truth by providing literature to many people. Because of this, her parents were arrested and put in jail three times, endured many tortures. In mid-March 2001, policeman He Zhengrong and others took her parents to Guoshuiping Police Substation and severely beat her father and cracked a bone in his leg. They also pierced all ten fingers with needles. Although her parents lost consciousness during the severe torture, they still refused to reveal the source of the truth-clarifying literature. The vicious police handcuffed her father's hands behind his back for three consecutive days, and forced him to go without food or water. After such severe torture, he was extremely weak and could barely breathe. Later he was carried to a van and sent back to Qidong Detention Center where he went on a hunger strike for thirty days. After a while, because he insisted on practicing Falun Gong, he experienced a miraculous recovery of the severe injuries that had caused great pain to his wounded body. His complete recovery occurred without any medical attention, in spite of the dreadfully bad environment.

On June 20, 2001, Haiyang's parents were released and returned home. The entire family used every opportunity to clarify the truth to people and deliver flyers to the neighborhood. On July 21, 2001, Liu Haiying was arrested while handing out literature. Her parents were also arrested, and again endured brutal beatings and torture. After they were detained, a policeman posted a notice stating that everybody could have visitors except for Falun Gong practitioners. Currently, sixteen-year-old Liu Haiying is still in jail. Liu planned on continuing her education, but cannot because she is still being unjustly detained. Her little brother and other family members miss her very much, but are not allowed to visit her.

Xie Ying , 13 year-old is a practitioner from Lanzhou City, Gansu Province. Being very smart, she entered junior high school at the age of only eight and half years old, and was well known as a child prodigy. She began to cultivate Falun Dafa in November 1998 and went to Beijing twice with her mother to clarify the truth, and was illegally detained five times. She was also forced to stay away from home for over a year.

In May 2000, the police illegally ransacked her home, arrested her and sent her to a brainwashing class in Lanzhou. They interrogated her about the situation in her home but she told them nothing. When her father took her home, the authorities demanded her to make certain promises. She rejected adamantly. She also refused to accept the school principal's request to not mention anything about Falun Gong in school after she went back. She has been facing high pressure since then.

In the end of March of Year 2003, she was detained while distributing truth clarification material. At the beginning of April, she was captured and brought back. In August, she was illegally detained again. It took more than 5 months this time. She was tortured dreadfully. She wanted to escape, so she started to have hunger strike. Everyday she was forced feeding 4 times a day. It lasted for several days. Her mouth was totally damaged. The police threatened her that she would be detained permanently. She saw a police dragged a practitioner over 50 years old to force-feeding and felt very afraid. In order to escape from it, she crossed the window and dropped to the ground. When she was sent to Hospital, she was diagnosed as spinal fracture. As soon as she was put on the bed, the police forced her to wear handcuff and shackle. The police screamed at her and said she would be vein-injected until she stopped hunger strike or died. One month later she was leased. ### 24) A 16-year-old girl from Hebei province was subjected to horrific torture

Name unknown, female, 16 years old from Hebei Province. In October 2000, she went to Tiananmen Square to peacefully appeal for Falun Dafa. She was arrested and detained at a local detention center. To protest the illegal arrest, she went on a hunger strike at the detention center. Under orders from the deputy head and a director at the center, police officers inserted a tube through the practitioner's nose and administered a large amount of salt water, injuring her stomach. She and other fellow practitioners demanded the right to practice the Falun Gong exercises and their immediate, unconditional release. In response, the girl was stripped of her clothing by the police. They used a high-powered electric baton to shock her on her face, mouth, behind the head, chest, armpits, inner thighs, and other sensitive areas of the body. She was forced to wear a set of heavy, cast iron shackles for nine days. During that time, her hands and feet were chained together so that she could not stand up straight or use the toilet on her own. The police also chained practitioners together in pairs. To force the young girl to give up the practice, the policemen placed her in solitary confinement for over three months. After ten months of detention, her father paid 4,000 Yuan [500 Yuan is the average monthly income for an urban worker in China] to bail her out. She was also expelled from school for her belief in Falun Dafa.

Between February 2002 and November 2002, the policemen harassed the girl and her family during this so-called "sensitive period." On the evening of November 3rd, policemen from a local police station broke into their home through a window after they tried, and failed, to

The next day they were both sent to a detention center. By that time, the police had already extorted 6,000 Yuan from the girl's father. He paid another 2,000 Yuan at the police station to bail out his daughter. The police, however, put the girl into a police station dormitory for the purpose of "constant surveillance." She was forced to stay there for ten days, and her family was charged 300 Yuan a day. After another 3,000 Yuan was extorted, she was finally allowed to go home.

25) An honor student was barred from high school

Name unknown, female, was born on January 20, 1987, and now forced to be homeless to avoid police harassment and persecution. Since the persecution of Falun Dafa began on July 20, 1999, she followed her parents to Beijing twice to appeal. She was beaten, abused, threatened and subjected to extortion by lawless policemen. Furthermore, she was illegally detained, photographed against my will, interrogated, handcuffed and confined in a solitary cell. After she returned, her schoolmaster, teachers, and personal friends, sent by different levels of the education bureaus, "talked" with her, and tried to force her to write a "Guarantee Statement."* She refused, so they took away all her honors including Student Leader, Provincial Level Pacesetter, City Level Excellent Student Award and Junior Reporter of Chinese Youth Newspaper. They told her that she wouldn't be qualified for nomination in the future. They also disciplined her with school-level public criticism and removed her Young Pioneer title.

On each government holiday, her schoolteachers called her in to see them both morning and evening and forbid me to travel or even go outside. Sometimes when she was in class, she would be asked to leave, by the teacher saying, "A leader from the education bureau wants to talk with you. You should just listen and say nothing." If she told them her thoughts, they would chide her for being too stubborn to be changed and another "ideology education" would be arranged for her. Such a life lasted till she graduated from primary school.

When she was preparing to enter high school, she visited many secondary schools, but all refused to accept her just because I practice Falun Dafa. They all said, "No matter how excellent you are, we won't accept you because your case involves the matter of politics."

Finally, she was assigned to a secondary school near her home. Schoolmaster said, "Our school refuses Falun Gong so we cannot accept you. This is what the city's Education Bureau instructed, thus I have no choice." Just before the new semester began, she went to school to tell them, "You can't deprive me of my right to education." But they said, "You must write a guarantee to promise that you will not practice Falun Gong any more and will not go to Beijing to appeal again. And you must also write a repentance statement. Since then, she has not been able to go to school. Since her parents were illegally arrested and sentenced to forced labor, she cannot return home and have to stay with others. The girl wrote in her letter "I really want to study, but they have denied my right to pursue my education."

26) A teenager girl was persecuted for her belief in Falun Gong

Name: unknown, a teenage girl and young Falun Gong practitioner. On Feb. 17, 2002, County plain cloth policemen came and arrested her without any legal document. She was dragged to the police station. They unfolded the window curtain and asked if she's still practicing Falun Gong. She answered she would follow "Truth, Compassion and Tolerance" (Note: principle of Falun Gong)

Later she realized that they were looking for excuses to detain her, so she tore apart the written record. The police was very angry. They beat her leg and head with a stick and dragged her handcuff to force her to move upstairs. Her hand was cut bleeding, then they changed to drag her hair. After she's dragged upstairs, they forced her to knee down. She said she wouldn't do it. They pushed and beat her to the ground, stump on her head with their feet took off her shoes and slammed on her heels with hard plastic tubes. Later she was sent to Shuangcheng Police station (local 610 office was also there) and detained for 15 days. Then she was sent to the 2nd Detention Center. She started hunger strike. The ninth day of the hunger strike, she was forced feeding. Her nose was damaged to bleed. This first hunger strike lasted 13 days. She required unconditional release. Several days later, she went on for the 2nd strike, which lasted for 17 or 18 days. They force-fed her with two bottles of high concentration salt solution. She was under extreme pain. All people in the cell were scared to cry. She was detained until May 8, 2002. The director of the County police sent her home.

Gradually she found out her family was forced to collect money to prevent her from further persecution. The police station sent the message to ask for 8000 Yuan. When they sent the money, she wasn't released. Everyday her family anxiously expected her to be back. It's an unbearable torment. Later the police station said, "we'll release her if we got another $3000." Her family re-collected the money and took her home.

by plain-clothes policemen and taken to the liaison office in Beijing. We did not have any actual meals for two days. Later her parents were taken away by their work units, while she was left to go home on my own.

The persecution became more and more intense. Things she would like to say boiled up in her heart and she could not bear it; therefore she went once again with her mom in September 2000 to the Appeals Office in Beijing. The policemen forcefully pulled both of them into their car and sent to the liaison office in Beijing. It was very cold that day. After they were put through a round of strict body searches, they sat and also slept on the icy cold floor.

On Monday night, with my mom once again, they spent another night on the floor that was even colder than before. Under most conditions she is able to fall asleep once she lay down, but this time she did not sleep at all during the whole night.

On the second day, an officer from the mother's work unit took them to the police station. They forbade them to talk, sit, move or look around. After about two hours she was taken away and separated from mom. The officer sent her back to school and took her directly to the principal's office and let the principal speak to her. The teachers also came to pressure me. I was determined not to give up cultivation and they finally left dejectedly.

In July 2001, she went with a young practitioner the same age as herself (11 years old) to Tiananmen Square. They held high a banner with the words, "Truthfulness, Compassion, Forbearance" on it. We were knocked to the ground with one kick from the policemen and were dragged away by our hair.

28) High school girl was persecuted for her belief in Falun Gong

Name unknown, female, teenage. In February 2002, she and I her mom (her only relative) went to Beijing to clarify the facts about Dafa. This resulted in their being illegally taken to the Chengdu Province Agency in Beijing. As soon as they arrived they were illegally body-searched and held there for the next 8 days. It was winter and the temporary shed where we were being detained was very cold with no bed, blankets, or bathrooms. We were forced to pay for food rations at 25 Yuan per day. What they got were leftovers from the government staff workers. They had to ask permission if they wanted go to the bathroom, and even then they got refused. More often than not they were woken up by the cold. At this time I was only 14 years old.

In April 2000, they appealed to the higher authorities for Falun Gong and her mom was detained for another 41 days. Since then, her mother was detained several times, she I had to stay at home by herself.

In July 2001, when she was 15 years old, she graduated from middle school and would go in to preschool education teacher training but she couldn't because she was a Falun Gong practitioner and it was explicitly forbidden by notice of the Student Recruiting Office. Instead, she went to high school. As soon as they realized that she was a practitioner, the school's staff tried different ways (including brainwashing) to stop her from practicing Falun Gong. They didn't allow her to clarify the truth of Falun Gong. They also threatened to expel her from school if she kept doing this. They also pressured her not to clarify the truth when she saw attempts to slander Falun Gong in her homework assignments and examinations.

30) A talented student was expelled from school

Name unknown, 9 years old, from a main city in north China.

His dad and mom never agreed in giving up their birthright to practice Falun Dafa, so they had to endure constant pressure from work, such as being asked to write statements agreeing never to practice Falun Dafa again and to go on television to declare their position publicly. One night in June 2001, a group of policemen tried to arrest his Dad illegally. They forced their way into the boy's house and seized about thirty thousand dollars worth of our personal possessions for no reason. They took Mom to the police station and left 13-year-old Sister and the 9-year old boy home alone. Since that day, his dad did not dare to come home. Ever since then, policemen watched his mom day and night and put all kinds of pressure on his mom, came to her office as often as they wanted and frightened her with all kinds of methods. She had no personal freedom at all. Finally, she could not bear it anymore and left my sister at home by herself and took the boy with her to leave home to avoid the persecution.

Dad, Mom and me have become homeless for more than a year. They do not have any dependable place to stay. Many nights, the three of the slept on the cement floor, hugging each other; the boy always curled up from the shivering cold.

The boy wrote at the end in his letter to us, “How I wish to be able to go back to school again! When I left school, my teacher told me in private that a present was already being brought for me since I got the highest scores in my final exam. I want to go to school! I want to finish my education! I miss my sister and want to be reunited with her! I want to go home! I want the police station return all our belongings! I miss all my relatives, my teacher, my classmates, and my buddies! When can I return home? When can I see my relatives? ”

Footnote: In the struggle to suppress Falun Dafa, the police eventually captured the three members of the family in this article. Their whereabouts are still unknown.

31) Experiences of a 15-year-old high school student suffering from the persecution

Tie Long, male, 15 years old, from Shao Village, Liu Chun Town, in Dingzhou City, Hebei province. Before the 16th Communist Party Congress was held last year, he was spreading the Fa to his teacher using a CD and other truth-clarification materials. For this, his schoolteacher reported him. Liuchun Police arrested Tie Long and took him to the town government building, where he was handcuffed to a tree and beaten up by the police until they were tired. They left to take a break, and Tie Long managed to escape.

Tie Long was forced to wander around homeless to avoid being persecuted. Officials arrested Tie Long's older brothers, uncles, aunts, all of them, and they were brutally beaten as police attempted to track down young Tie Long. His uncle can't get out of bed because of this, he can't take food properly, nor look after himself.

Young Tie Long made his way to his grandmother's home, but he didn't dare stay there for long. He left in a hurry, as he didn't want to get his grandma into trouble. The police followed him and came to his grandmother's home later. They beat his uncle and aunt badly, then broke into their store and ransacked it. When they asked where they could find Tie Long, his aunt said: "I don't know." The police then took his aunt away to the detention center, and she still hasn't been released. Soon after, they arrested Tie Long. He was detained at the Dingzhou Detention Center.

Before the Chinese New Year, the police released Tie Long's father, and asked him to pay 10,000 Yuan to them to release Tielong. Since the persecution of Falun Gong began in 1999, their home has been ransacked several times, and there is little left to give, so Tie Long's

32) Why was I forced to leave school at age of 16?

Name unknown, male, 16 years old, Beijing. The boy wrote at the beginning in the letter "I had never thought, even in my dreams, that I, who loved to study, would be forced to leave school, leave my beloved teacher and schoolmates. Since childhood, the education I had received was to love my country. But did I love it wrongly? Who was it that changed my beloved country like this? "

He learned Falun Gong in Beijing when was ten years old. After practicing, a hereditary disease in his trachea greatly improved. My medical expenses were reduced dramatically. Gradually, I didn't even need to spend one cent on medical expenses. Since then, I have never suffered from the pain of illnesses.

After July 20, 1999 since his Mom and Dad didn't want go against their conscience to say that Falun Gong is not good, they went to appeal at the Appeals Bureau, and were detained many times. When he was in the second grade of Junior High School, the police called him out from an English class and told him if he would persuade his mother to stop practicing Falun Gong, they would let him visit her. Since then, his life has no longer been peaceful. In junior high school, this kind of "talk" happened to me three times. When he was in class, he was suddenly called out, threatened and questioned. Unexpectedly, on May 1, right before his graduation exams from Junior High School when he just turned fifteen, personnel from the street administration committee and the head of his school used the excuse of visiting his mother to trick him into a brainwashing class.

Because of worrying and the constant harassment, he only got admitted into an average high school. At that time, his dear mother was forced to leave home again, and had not been back for over one year.

In the beginning of September of this year, the school secretary and the vice president asked him out for another "talk." They asked him if I still practiced Falun Gong. He told them righteously that he still does. He also told them how he benefited from it and that Dafa is good. Dafa practitioners are being persecuted, and are being treated unjustly. In the late afternoon on September 28, the police once again kidnapped his father and him to the brainwashing class. A few days later, he felt close to a mental collapse. The tremendous pressure and the endless lies made him feel suffocated every second. He wanted to cry but was tearless. Finally, he had to leave high school and wander about like his mother.

33) Ordeals of a 16-year-old high school student at the Hulufa Brainwashing Center, Beijing

Name unknown, 16 years old, high school student, has been practicing Falun Gong for more than 6 years. The following is her description of her experience of been brainwashed.

On April 25, 1999, my mother and I went to Zhongnanhai to appeal for Dafa. After that, I also practiced Falun Gong outdoors. Since then, the personnel from my local residence office and the police station have been harassing me at my school and at home. But I never give up practicing Falun Gong since I have not done anything wrong. However I feel pain from the separation from my family members. My parents have been detained illegally many times. My mother has had to leave home in order to avoid the persecution and I am not able to see her although I miss her very much.

Once, when my parents were detained, the police came to my school and took me to the principal's office. They surrounded me and scolded me. They told me that if I asked my parents to give up practicing Falun Gong, they would let me visit them; otherwise I could never see them.

On April 31, 2001, I agreed to let the police take me to visit my mother. They said I could "Take a look at your mother and stay there for two days." They took me to Hulufa in the Fangshan District. I arrived only to find out that they had deceived me. The police tried to force me to write a statement of my intention to give up Falun Gong. They said, "You can't leave without writing this statement." They pointed to a man who was running constantly in the courtyard as an example.

One evening, just before going to sleep, I discovered many awful black and blue bruises on my mother's back, shoulders, and arms. I immediately burst into tears. I later learned about the torture that my mom had received in this brainwashing center. First, they took turns brainwashing and threatening her and did not allow her to sleep for several days. They punished her by various means, including making her stand facing the wall, kicking her, punching her, and forcing her to run around the courtyard for six hours. They even threatened to let a dog bite her. My mom was finally forced to give in.

During those days, I was not able to think clearly. Their various lies made me muddleheaded. By that time, I was on the edge of mental collapse and was exhausted from reasoning with them. I was forced to write a statement of renunciation of Dafa.

But the they still did not leave me alone. On one evening in September 2002, some women from my local residence office and some police from local police station took my father and me to Hulufa again. All of our neighbors were shocked by this news. The police forced me to give them my fingerprints.

The next day, the Bureau of Education instructed the leaders at my school to assign a teacher to accompany me every day to the brainwashing center in order to "influence" me. Every day, I felt depressed or even that it was too painful to live. I often felt that my mind was on the verge of collapse. Every day, those people who had enlightened along the evil path and the police constantly instilled evil thoughts into my head and the teacher from my school kept deceiving me. I doubted that I could last much longer

At the brainwashing center, I found out that they wanted me to assist in the arrest of my mom. My mom managed to escape. Her life, although unsettled and difficult, is no longer one of humiliation.

Since the persecution started, he has been forced to become homeless, and has suffered a lot. In order to arrest the baby's grandfather, even though his relatives are non-practitioners, the homes where he had stayed were ransacked, and the occupants were threatened and kidnapped by the officials of the "610 office in Yuangu City. Prior to the 16th Party Congress in November 2002, the local police broke into the baby's home and tried to force his parents, who are non-practitioners, to tell them where his grandfather lived--but his parents didn't know. Then, without saying another word the police arrested both parents and sent them along with the baby to a detention center.

On July 20, 1999, when Li Zhongwen's mother, Bai Yuzhi, was illegally sentenced to three years' forced labor, he was only 14 years old. In 2000, his father, Li Dongliang, was also illegally sentenced to three years' forced labor for clarifying the truth. However the child did not give up; instead he followed the principles of Falun Dafa and tried to be a good person.

Zhongwen often clarifies the truth to people around him and so he also receives persecution by the followers of Jiang. In the middle of April 2002, he was arrested by policemen and was put into a brainwashing class, where he has been detained for an indefinite duration. She was punished with open criticism in front of the entire school

In the summer of 2001, Xiaotian was accepted to the Chaoyang No.1 Middle School in the Chaoyang District, Changchun City, due to her outstanding scores. When the principal from the No.1 Middle School got my record from Anming elementary school, he found out that Xiaotian was a Falun Gong practitioner. Therefore, he tried to force me to write a letter of guarantee, and made it clear to her that she would not be allowed to attend Chaoyang No.1 Middle School unless she wrote the letter of guarantee. Xiaotian refused their request.

In the end, I was sent to the No. 69 Middle School, the lowest ranking middle school in Changchun. On my first day of class, the principal Chang Jun asked me for my opinion regarding Falun Gong. Xiaotian told him the truth about Falun Gong. He said, "You cannot come to class unless you write the letter of guarantee not to practice Falun Gong." She rejected again.

Cases of Children Separated from Parents Who Practice Falun Gong

1) Lin Huixuan, a 5-year-old girl, was forcibly taken away from her parents

Both Lin Huixuan's parents (father Dr. Lin Yanqing and mother Xu Lei) and grandparents ( Mr. Xu Zhaotong and Ms. Li Fengying) are Falun Gong practitioners.

After Dr. Lin Yanqing's wife and parents-in-law were arrested, the wicked people planned to take them back to Beijing. ### 4) Huhu, 4-year-old boy, left alone after happy family torn apart by persecution

Huhu was born in a happy family. Both his father Yu Chao and mother Chu Tong, graduates from the prestigious Qinghua University of China, are Falun Gong practitioners. They used to have very good jobs. However, because of peacefully appealing for Falun Gong, his mother Chu Tong was secretly sentenced to 18 months. As she exposed her experience of being persecuted, she was searched by the police and had to escape from home. Huhu then had to follow her parents to escape from one place to another to avoid being arrested. Facing such high pressure and unstable life, they were forced to leave Huhu with a friend.

In August 2002, Chu Tong and Yu Chao couple was again abducted in Beijing. They were over detained for 16 months and suffered all kinds of tortures. On Jan 9, 2004, Beijing City Chaoyang District Court secretly sentenced the couple along with another Ph.D. candidate of Qinghua University, Wang Weiyu. ### 7) A homeless child was sent to orphanage as her mother was tortured at a Forced Labor Camp

Falun Gong practitioner Yu Yuejin, 48 years old, a resident in Harbin City, was arrested in March of 2003 for practising Falun Gong. Later she was sent to the Wanjia Forced Labor Camp in Harbin City for forced labor of three years. Here, Falun Gong practitioners are very cruelly tortured. Her four-year-old daughter was left unattended and was sent to Harbin City Children's Welfare Center (actually an orphanage) by the police from the Nangang District Police Department.

Yu Yuejin missed her daughter very much. Due to her strong request, someone from the Wanjia Forced Labor Camp took her to the orphanage to visit her daughter. After she came back, she said her lovely daughter acted as if she were in a daze and could not recognize her, due to the serious mental trauma resulting from the sudden loss of her mother's care and the change in living environments.

Because Yu Yuejin did not give up practising Falun Gong, policemen frequently tortured her. The torture methods included: shocking with electric batons, forcing her to sit on electronic chair, slandering and threatening her and other abuses. Due to the torture, Yu developed a serious heart problem and high blood pressure. Under such conditions, the police in Wanjia Labor Camp still forced Yu to do hard labor. Yu Yuejin is currently detained in the labor camp, suffering both mental and physical trauma.

9) The persecution of young Falun Gong practitioner Lu Xin in Zhuhai city, Guangdong province

Lu Xin (nicknamed Beibei), female, 12 years old. She began practicing Falun Gong alongside her parents in 1997.

When the persecution of Falun Gong began on July 20, 1999, Beibei and her parents traveled to Beijing to appeal to the government on behalf of Falun Gong. Their intention was discovered while they were on the train, and they were illegally detained. The day after they were released, her parents were unlawfully locked up in a brainwashing center. Beibei, who was in kindergarten then, was separated from her parents and placed under the care and supervision of her mother's supervisor at work and personnel appointed from the "610 Office." She lived the life of an unwanted child in an alarming and unstable environment.

Beibei's parents were later arrested and sent to the brainwashing center a few more times. Their home was also illegally searched several times. In June 2000, her mother was detained for 48 hours by the Public Security Office for visiting a fellow practitioner's home. Beibei's father was detained for 10 days for "disruptive behavior," because he wouldn't answer the door when the local police were trying to gain access to illegally search the house. Her mother asked the police to place Beibei under the care of a friend while she and her husband were both in jail. The police refused her request because the friend is also a Falun Gong practitioner, so the girl was placed under the supervision of the "Residents' Committee."

Since there were always special agents following them everywhere they went, and in order to provide a more stable and safe environment for Beibei, in November 2000, her parents placed her under the care of her maternal grandmother. The parents were unlawfully arrested in December 2000 while explaining the facts about Falun Dafa. Beibei's mother Zhou Meilin was illegally confined in a labor camp for two years and the father Lu Pingyi for three years. In July 2002, Beibei was reunited with her father and in January 2003 with her whole family. Her mother's feet had not yet recovered from injuries caused by the cruelties imposed on her in detention. She walked in slowly and painfully to see Beibei, and her feet would continue to be swollen and cause pain whenever she walked long distances. Her mother's plight pained Beibei so much that she was in tears and was deeply and fearfully affected.

On July 14, 2004, Beibei's father was illegally detained in a brainwashing center located in the Minfu Hotel in Zhuhai City. She and her mother remained at home under surveillance.

Extremely frightened, Beibei could not sleep for two nights. With strong righteous thoughts, Beibei and her mother escaped their house arrest unnoticed and have been living a life of homelessness ever since.

For five years now, Beibei's young life has been filled with terror, violence, and the pain of being constantly torn apart from her family members. Even now, she is still living a life full of anxiety about her own and her mother's safety, and her eyes are filled with sadness and fear. One hardly ever sees a smile on her face.

- (1) "610 Office": a bureau specifically created by the Chinese government to persecute Falun Gong. It has absolute power over each level of administration in the Party, as well as over the political and judiciary branches.

Summary

During the past five years, those who practice Falun Gong and strive to be good people and follow the principles of “Truth, Compassion, and Tolerance” have experienced the cruelest form of torture under the persecution orchestrated by Jiang’s regime. Many of them have even been tortured to death, resulting in the breakup of happy families, and in children having no parents to care for them. Statistics from Clearwisdom.net show that as of October 25, 2004, 1089 Falun Gong practitioners are confirmed as having been tortured to death. It is not difficult to imagine how many children are suffering from the loss of their parents. At the same time, numerous children are suffering hardships after their parents were imprisoned or sent to forced labor camps, went into exile to avoid arrest, were locked up in brainwashing centers or mental hospitals, or lost their jobs. Even more disturbing is the fact that young children are also under direct persecution by Jiang’s regime because of their own Falun Gong practice or because their parents practice Falun Gong. Over the past five years, countless children have suffered discrimination, intimidation, illegal detention, beatings, homelessness, and some have even been tortured to death. The harm done to these children is beyond imagination.

The cases collected in this report are just a drop in the ocean in the five years of the persecution of Falun Gong practitioners. Though just a small fraction of cases, they can reflect the evilness of Jiang’s regime. The Jiang regime's persecution of Falun Gong and its policy of eliminating Falun Gong don’t even spare children! It openly violates Chinese law and international conventions, and takes away young people's rights of freedom of belief and their rights to receive an education.

How many children have been deprived of a happy childhood and family life during the persecution? How many family tragedies has this inhuman persecution created? At this time it is difficult for us to make an accurate determination. For the future of the children, the hopeful future of mankind, and for justice, the world's people must unite to put an end to this inhuman persecution. Let’s work together to rescue these innocent children. They deserve to be helped, cared for, and respected by every kind-hearted person, government and the whole international community.
